Germany

By Car

From south, use Autobahn A61 from Koblenz to Cologne. At the motorway crossing »Kreuz Meckenheim«, change to A565 to direction Meckenheim/Bonn. Use exit »Meckenheim-Merl / Wachtberg« and follow the white signs for »Fraunhofer«. Parking lots for visitors are available at the site.

From north, use Autobahn A3 from Oberhausen to Frankfurt. At the motorway crossing »Kreuz Bonn-Ost«, change to A565 to direction Koblenz. Use exit »Meckenheim-Merl / Wachtberg« and follow the white signs for »Fraunhofer«. Parking lots for visitors are available at the site.

By airplane

There are three international airports located in the area.

Cologne/Bonn (CGN, <http://www.airport-cgn.de/>) is the nearest one. The distance to FKIE is about 45km. Arriving at Airport Köln/Bonn CGN, take a taxi (50km), or take the shuttle (line SB60) available to Bonn central station every 15 to 30 minutes to Bonn Hbf and continue with public transportation (further information below).

Frankfurt (FRA, <http://www.frankfurt-airport.com>) is the biggest airport in Germany.

There are frequent connections to cities all over the world. The distance to FKIE is about 170km. There is a high-speed train connection from the airport to the railway stations Siegburg/Bonn and Cologne Central Station (30-45 min.).

Düsseldorf (DUS, http://www.duesseldorf-international.de/dus_en/) is another international airport. Concerning size and flight frequencies, it is somewhere between the other airports mentioned above. The distance to FKIE is about 100km.

From all airports, it is possible to get to Bonn and FKIE using trains, taxis, or rental cars. Using rental cars is the easiest way to get there.
